NorthBay Healthcare
TBI
William Fulton,DO,FACOS
19yo MVC, head-on collision, restrained driver, GCS 7

Unrestrained passenger died at the scene
Tension hemopneumothorax requiring emergent chest tube, scalp laceration

- CT: intracranial hemorrhage, occipital fracture, diaphragm and liver injury, sacral & pubic rami fractures
Emergency Surgery

• Placement of right front ICP
• Exploratory laparotomy, repair of right diaphragm laceration and liver laceration with hemorrhage control
Acute fracture of the right occipital condyle with associated acute hemorrhage which surrounds the adjacent spinal cord.
Fractures of the right hemipelvis including the right sacral alar, the superior and inferior right pubic ramus one of the fractures extending very close to the anterior wall of the right acetabulum.